RORATE COELI —THE 4TH SUNDAY IN ADVENT

The coming of God in all His unveiled power at Mt. Sinai was terrifying to the people of Israel. The thundering voice of the Lord puts sinners in fear of death (Deut 18.15–19). God, therefore, raised up a prophet like Moses, the Messiah, the Christ. God came to His people veiled in human flesh. The skies poured down the Righteous One from heaven; the earth opened her womb and brought forth Salvation (Introit) through the blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of the Lord (Lk 1.39–56). The fruit of her womb is the very Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, the One whose sandal strap John was not worthy to loose (Jn 1.19–28). In Jesus we are delivered from fear and anxiety. In Him alone we have the peace of God which surpasses all understanding (Phil 4.4–7).

NOTE ON PARTICIPATING IN THE LORD'S SUPPER

As intended by Christ and as practiced by the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church throughout history, "closed communion" is observed here, in which the Lord's Supper is distributed only to those who:

- (a) are baptized in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
- (b) have been instructed in the truth of Holy Scriptures as taught in the Lutheran Confessions, have been confirmed in this Lutheran faith and practice, and now embrace this same Lutheran faith in the same way that it is believed, taught, confessed, and practiced in this congregation;
- (c) believe that in this Sacrament the real body and blood of Christ are truly distributed to them and orally received by them, bestowing on them the forgiveness of sins, life and salvation;
- (d) repent of all their sins, and desire to receive God's forgiveness in this holy meal.

Guests at our services who are able to affirm these facts should speak to our pastor or the elder on duty before receiving the Sacrament. To other guests with us today, we express to you our sincere interest, friendship, and concern, and we assure you that it is for the spiritual welfare of all that we practice "closed communion," even as we continue to work toward the day in which all divisions over doctrine and practice within Christ's Church will be resolved. Those desiring to learn more about our beliefs are asked to speak with one of our pastors.

Antiphon: \Drop down, ye heavens, / from a- / bove, * and let the skies / pour down / righteous - / ness ; || Let the / earth_ / open, * and / bring_ / forth sal- / vation. (Isaiah 45.8a; RSV)

The heavens declare the / glory of / God, * and the / firma- ment / showeth His / handiwork. || Their voice is gone out through- / out the / earth, * and their / words to the / end of the / world.

In them He has set a / tent for the / sun, * which comes forth like a / Bridegroom / leaving His / chamber , || and / like a strong / man, * it / runs its / course with / joy.

Drop down, ye heavens, / from a- / bove, * and let the skies / pour down / righteous - / ness ; || Let the / earth_ / open, * and / bring_ / forth sal- / vation.

Salutation, Collect p. 189

Collect for the 4th Sunday of Advent: Stir up Thy power, O Lord, we beseech Thee, and come among us, that by Thy grace whatever is hindered by our sins may yet be accomplished speedily through Thy mercy and satisfaction; who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen!

Collect for the Season of Advent: Almighty God, heavenly Father, bestow on us Thy grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which Thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility, that in the Last Day when He will come again in His glorious Majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may then rise to the life immortal; through Him who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen!
