The 10th Sunday after Trinity

Our Lord wept over Jerusalem for the destruction that would soon come upon her. For she did not recognize the time of God’s visitation in Christ, who had come to bring her peace (Luke 19.41–48). Through His prophets God had consistently called His people to turn from their deceit and false worship. “But My people do not know the judgment of the Lord” (Jer 7.1–11; 8.4–12). They sought to establish their own righteousness rather than receive Christ’s righteousness through faith (Rom 9.30–10.4). So it was that God was in His temple to cleanse it, a precursor to the once-for-all cleansing from sin which He would accomplish in the temple of His own body on the cross. God grant us to know the things that make for our peace—His visitation in the Word and Sacraments—that by the Holy Spirit we may penitently confess “Jesus is Lord” (1 Cor 12.1–11)..

A Confessional, Evangelical, Sacramental, and Liturgical Congregation of the Lutheran Confessions

“Where the Lutheran Reformation Lives!”

MEMBER: THE LUTHERAN CHURCH – MISSOURI SYNOD

NOTE ON PARTICIPATING IN THE LORD'S SUPPER

As intended by Christ and as practiced by the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church throughout history, "closed communion" is observed here, in which the Lord's Supper is distributed only to those who:

- (a) are baptized in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
- (b) have been instructed in the truth of Holy Scriptures as taught in the Lutheran Confessions, have been confirmed in this Lutheran faith and practice, and now embrace this same Lutheran faith in the same way that it is believed, taught, confessed, and practiced in this congregation;
- (c) believe that in this Sacrament the real body and blood of Christ are truly distributed to them and orally received by them, bestowing on them the forgiveness of sins, life and salvation;
- (d) repent of all their sins, and desire to receive God's forgiveness in this holy meal.

Guests at our services who are able to affirm these facts should speak to our pastor or the elder on duty before receiving the Sacrament. To other guests with us today, we express to you our sincere interest, friendship, and concern, and we assure you that it is for the spiritual welfare of all that we practice "closed communion," even as we continue to work toward the day in which all divisions over doctrine and practice within Christ's Church will be resolved. Those desiring to learn more about our beliefs are asked to speak with one of our pastors.

The Service of the Word begins with the Introit

Antiphon: Our souls wait / for the / Lord: * || He / is our help / and our / shield: || / For our heart is / glad in / Him: * Because we / trust in His / holy / name.

The counsel of the Lord / stands for- / ever : * The plans of His heart / to our / gener- / ations! || Blessed is the nations whose / God is the / Lord: * The people whom He has / chosen / as His / heritage!

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on / those who / fear Him: * On those who / hope in His / steadfast / love, || that He may deliver their / souls from / death, * and / keep them a- / live in / famine.

Our souls wait / for the / Lord: * || He / is our help / and our / shield: || / For our heart is / glad in / Him: * Because we / trust in His / holy / name.

The Collect for the Feast of the Martyrdom of St. John the Baptist:

Almighty God, who didst give Thy servant John the Baptist to be the forerunner of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, in both his preaching of repentance and his innocent death, grant that we, who have died and risen with Christ in Holy Baptism, may daily repent of our sins, patiently suffer for the sake of the truth, and fearlessly bear witness to His victory over death; through the same, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen!

The Collect for the 10th Sunday after Trinity: O God, who dost declare Thy almighty power above all in showing mercy and pity, mercifully grant us such a measure of Thy grace that we may obtain Thy gracious promises and be made partakers of Thy heavenly treasures through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen!
